

2.3 Accessibility Review

This is the parent page for Sakai 2.3 Accessibility Testing, which has been completed. Special thanks are due to Mary Stores and Patrick at Indiana University who conducted 24 JAWS reviews, and to their supervisor Margaret Londergan for making their time available. The test details and sign-up page provides links and details about 2.3 accessibility testing. As an alternative, you can go directly to the pages below:
