

The Wiki Tool - the Swiss Army Knife of Sakai

Cette présentation sera en Anglais. Par contre, il sera possible de poser vos questions en Français car c'est la langue maternelle de Mathieu Plourde.

General Info/Information générale

Track	Sakai Showcase
Date / Time	Wednesday July 2, 2008, from 1:30 to 2:30 PM
Room	Salle des Thèses (level SB)
Description	You turn a corner and an instructor pounces: "I need to create an online science journal for my chemistry students... in 20 minutes!" Impossible you say. Then you remember the Wiki Tool and the day is saved! Learn about the diverse ways Wikis are supporting instructional and administrative collaboration.
Presenters	Mathieu Plourde , Instructional Designer, University of Delaware. mathieu@udel.edu Joshua Baron , Director of Academic Technology & eLearning, Marist College. Josh.Baron@marist.edu

Video

Unknown macro: 'html'

Topics/Sujets couverts

- What is a wiki anyway?
- Use cases and examples
- The value of information in a Wiki
- Some tips and trick in the Sakai wiki tool
- Rwiki tool requirements (if time permits)
- Next steps

Breakout Activities/Activités en groupe

Requirements, as discussed in group during the presentation.

- Search tool (default to everything)
- Delete pages
- Group awareness
- WYSIWYG
- Add page
- Better Help
- Highlight, use color (make it easier)
- Advanced formatting
- Export the whole wiki to word
- Export subsets
- Permissions on subsets

Links/Liens

- Presentation Slides
- Mathieu's Report: Wikis in Higher Education \(and at UD\)
- Mathieu's del.icio.us links tagged with "wiki"
- Teaching & Learning Group Home Page